

'Come-Back' Men Inspire Wanderers

BY "NOVA"

WYCOMBE WANDERERS' 2-0 victory over Wealdstone in the AFA Cup quarter-final at Loakes Park will be remembered principally for the "come-back" display of two Wycombe players. Baffling, brilliant Paul Bates put on a Wycombe shirt for the first time in nearly two months—and beat men with ease, shot with venomous power and carved repeated openings out for his colleagues.

And, returning to the senior team with him, Tommy Holmes produced what was probably his finest game for the club. Every thing he tried came off. Like Bates, Holmes has a good shot and he soon proved it by scoring both the Wanderers' goals.
